La ciudad de la pólvora

Cuando decimos que 'ya huele a pólvora' significa que ya estamos inmersos en las fiestas populares, pues cuando percibimos ese olor tan característico es porque empiezan a resonar en nuestros oídos los petardos.

EL RUIDO INUNDA NUESTRA CIUDAD

La ‘mascletà’ es uno de los actos más importantes de las Fallas de Valencia y se celebra cada día, entre el 1 y el 19 de marzo en la Plaza del Ayuntamiento.

Una mascletà es una serie de fuertes explosivos (conocidos como ‘masclets’) que se disparan continuamente con la finalidad de producir ruido (no luces), pero no de cualquier manera, sino con ritmo.

The city of gunpowder

When we say that 'it already smells like gunpowder' it means that we are already immersed in the popular festivities, because when we perceive that characteristic smell it is because the firecrackers begin to resound in our ears.

NOISE FLOODS OUR CITY

The ‘mascletà’ is one of the most important events of the Fallas of Valencia and is celebrated every day between March 1 and 19 in the Plaza del Ayuntamiento.

A mascletà is a series of loud explosives (known as ‘masclets’) that are fired continuously with the purpose of producing noise (not lights), but not in any way, but with rhythm.

THE BEST BEACHES

Beaches

The incredible climate that Valencia enjoys during most of the year, makes this province one of the main European tourist destinations for those looking for a few days of sun, good temperature and a range of entertainment and leisure options. Whether you are traveling with children or not, the beaches of Valencia are a safe bet.

- La Malvarrosa beach

It is the urban beach par excellence of the Valencian capital. Located north of the port of the city, this beach is characterized by its fine sand and the multitude of services offered on the promenade that delimits it.

- Port Saplaya beach

This beach is further away from the city, but it is well worth a visit. Known as "Little Venice", it has a small marina and a very picturesque residential area.

- La Patacona beach

It is the golden sand beach belongs to the town of Alboraya. If you do not want to move too much and are looking for a quieter atmosphere, this beach is a good choice.
